

PEER TO PEER:

‘Kazakh Winter’ and New Perspectives of National Development

‘Kazakh Winter’ (January 2-19, 2022) is the institutional revolution which started from the bottom with the political slogan ‘Old Man go away!’ and has been supported on the top with the slogan ‘New Kazakhstan.’ The direct consequence of this shock transformation was that the power transition from the first president Nazarbayev to the second president Tokayev has been completed. The initially weak political position of Tokayev’s administration became much stronger and consolidated thanks to Kazakhstan people’s mandate, expressed so dramatically, for deep political, social, and economical renovation of the

Zhomart Medeuov
Visiting Executive Scholar